2. Quick Search

Enter any name, reference or subject into the Quick Search field and Justis will search all the sources your organisation subscribes to.

You can view detailed advice on how to use all the different screens on Justis by clicking the Help & Information button in the upper right-hand corner.

All legislation on Justis is provided as enacted.

3. Results

If your search returns more than one document, you will be taken to the Results screen. Simply click on the title of the piece of legislation you wish to view.

The Filter Results Profiles box is an interactive search field that searches the information in the Reference, Title and Subject and Year columns of the data and will provide you with ranked results and highlighted search terms.

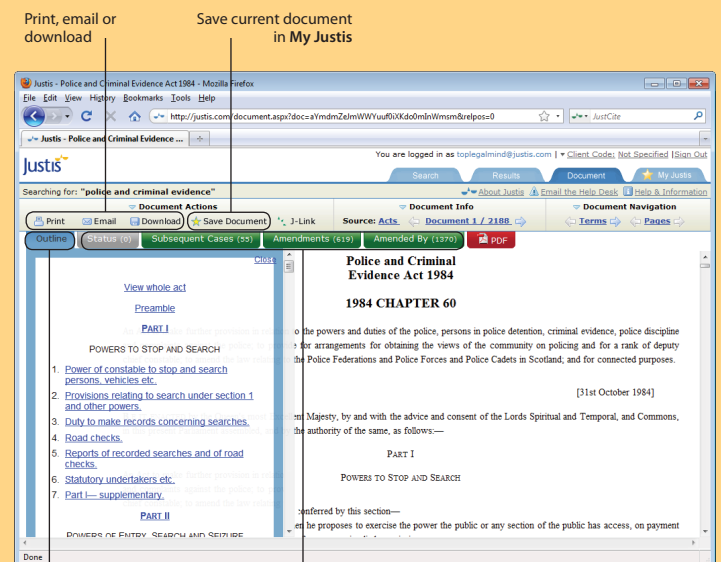

To narrow your results further click on the Source button and select UK Statutes or UK Statutory Instruments from the list provided.

4. Viewing Your Document

Use the Terms navigation arrows at the top right-hand side of the screen to instantly link to where your search term appears highlighted in red within the document. You can also search within the document on screen by pressing Ctrl+F.

Click the blue Outline tab above the document to view other sections of the Act or view the Act in its entirety.

Click to display shortcuts to the document sections

Tabs provide you with relevant JustCite information

5. Subsequent Cases Tab

If you subscribe to JustCite, the Subsequent Cases tab provides a list of cases that refer to the selected Statute or SI displayed on the Document screen.

8. Other Search Options

For an even more structured approach use the form search by selecting Legislation from the Search In section of the Search screen.

The Search In Legislation screen contains a number of labelled boxes that will restrict your search to certain sections of the document e.g. Title, Year or Section. These fields can be combined to refine your search, pictured right.

Customise

You can add and remove fields by clicking on the Customise button. It is also possible to save your custom forms for later use.

Data Sources

To select the specific database(s) you wish to search, click the Data Sources button and use the check boxes displayed to refine your search.
